

RETREAT GENERAL INFORMATION FOR ORGANIZORS

Arrive with time to meet and greet the women participating on the retreat and take note of attendance.

To prepare:

- Room Allocations
- List of jobs
- Roster to pray
- Readings for Mass

Reminders: points to remind them of at the beginning of the Retreat

- It is a silent retreat – no talking, mobiles switched off
- Remind them of the importance of growing in piety, that everything is centred around Our Lord, visits to the oratory, etc; to take advantage of having the Blessed Sacrament in the house; spend as much time as possible with Our Lord.
- Manners (some details): Remind them to say goodbye if leaving, at the table the Directress is severed first, and where she sits.

Book to read:

Please use a book to read at the table or audio recordings that we have produced e.g.:
Dream and your Dreams will fall short.

At the end of the Retreat – please return to the Advisory:

- ATTENDANCE - specify if partial or full attendance and any exceptions made. You can use the meal sheet for this purpose.
- EXPERIENCES - Please pass on any experiences or suggestions to the Advisory. This may include feedback on talks given, general environment, and any other useful information to improve in for next time.
